

Friday June 19th, 7pm at Ed Video, 40 Baker Street

Admission is free (non-perishable food donations accepted for Marianne's Place shelter)

Join Guelph-Wellington Women in Crisis and Project Ploughshares and the Centre for Research and Education on Violence against Women and Children in launching the Disarming Domestic Violence Campaign with the screening of a documentary on the global arms trade. Disarming Domestic Violence is the first international campaign to protect women from gun violence in the home, where women are most at risk of gun violence. Organizations in 85 countries are hosting events this week as part of the Global Week of Action against Gun Violence to draw attention to the human toll of small arms proliferation and misuse.
