DO YOUR GUN RIGHTS CAUSE THE WORLD'S GUN PROBLEMS?

YES! says Rebecca Peters, mastermind of Australia's disastrous 1996 gun confiscation and now leader of the powerful United Nations coalition seeking a global gun ban treaty by 2006.

Should the United Nations govern your firearm freedoms?

NO! says veteran freedom fighter Wayne LaPierre, head of the National Rifle Association, who warns Ms. Peters' worldwide coalition to "keep your hands off our Bill of Rights."

Has "gun control" worked in Australia, England, Canada and other supposedly free countries?

WAYNE LAPIERRE

VS

REBECCA PETERS

CEO, NATIONAL RIFLE ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA (NRA)

CEO, INTERNATIONAL ACTION NETWORK ON SMALL ARMS (IANSA)

Mr. LaPierre leads the 4 million-member NRA, founded in 1871 to promote safe and responsible firearm ownership, to foster and improve civilian marksmanship, and to preserve the Second Amendment right to keep and bear arms. The NRA's many safety, education and training programs are supported through member dues, while its political and legislative efforts are funded entirely by voluntary contributions.

Funded by multi-billionaire George Soros and backed by more than 500 anti-gun organizations from 100 countries, Ms. Peter's IANSA has been working through the United Nations to impose global gun control by 2006. IANSA supporters also include many American anti-gun groups, philanthropists and politicians. Ms. Peters and IANSA reject the individual freedom to keep and bear arms guaranteed by the Second Amendment to the U.S. Constitution.
